

FISCAL NOTE

HB 235 - SB 465

February 21, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires other officers and employees not statutorily required to file a statement of interests under the Conflict of Interest law, to file a statement when the person has acquired or terminated a financial interest that a reasonable person would consider to be a conflict or potential conflict with the officer's or employee's duties. Failure to file the statement under such circumstances would subject the person to an assessment of civil penalties.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Not Significant

State revenues will increase to the extent civil penalties are assessed and collected which would not have been collected in absence of the bill.
